

with 16 helicopters and 400 Marines arrives to help fight pro-Communist (Viet Cong) guerrillas.

April 16—Replying to a Soviet note of March 17, Britain rejects a Soviet proposal that the 2 governments, co-chairmen of the Geneva conference of 1954 setting up the Indochinese peace, ask the U.S. to end interference in Vietnam. Britain charges that Communist North Vietnam is responsible for the situation in South Vietnam.

April 23—Provincial authorities declare that on April 20 Cambodian soldiers attacked a Vietnamese border village, killing 52 persons.

April 25—It is reported that yesterday Vietnamese forces, assisted by U.S. marine helicopters, won a major victory over Communist guerrillas in the Mekong Delta area. 87 Viet Cong guerrillas are killed.

April 28—It is reported that an army team, part of the U.S. Special Forces, is organizing and training some 2,000 Rhade tribesmen to fight the Communist guerrillas.

YUGOSLAVIA

April 7—Milovan Djilas, government critic and author of The New Class, is rearrested; he was released from prison in January, 1961. It is reported that Djilas' arrest is related to the publication of a new book in New York entitled "Conversations with Stalin."

The Parliament votes to extend its term for a maximum one year period. Its regular term expires this month.

April 11—The Yugoslav Information Secretariat announces that Djilas has been rearrested for breaking the terms of his parole in 1961.

April 16—Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko arrives in Belgrade for a 5-day state visit. He is the first leading Soviet official to visit Yugoslavia in over 4 years.

April 18—The Federal Executive Council approves new austere economic regulations that are designed to provide a deflationary effect on the economy and to reduce domestic consumption.

April 21—Gromyko departs for the U.S.S.R.

The U.S. and Yugoslavia sign an agreement for the sale of $25 million in surplus U.S. agricultural goods to Yugoslavia.

ecumenical council, and the first since Vatican I in 1869-1870.

VENEZUELA

Oct. 8—President Romulo Betancourt announces the suspension of constitutional guarantees after a week of terrorism.

VIETNAM, SOUTH

Oct. 5—Viet Cong (Communist) guerrillas attack government forces in an area 50 miles southeast of Saigon. 100 rebels are reported killed. A U.S. army sergeant in a helicopter crew is also killed.

Oct. 6—Three of the 8 American crew aboard a helicopter are killed when it crashes. Whether the craft fell accidentally or because of Viet Cong fire is not known.

Oct. 15—A U.S. Air Force L-28 spotter plane is shot down by Viet Cong rebels; 3 U.S. crewmen are killed.

Oct. 19—It is reported that Operation Morning Star, a large-scale anti-Communist offensive, was halted yesterday.

YEMEN

Oct. 2—The rebel military regime in Yemen warns Saudi Arabia against assisting a counter-invasion by Prince Saif al-Islam al-Hassan, uncle of the deposed Imam Ahmad. Prince Hassan has set up headquarters in Saudi Arabia.

Oct. 7—The Cairo radio reports that Yemeni forces are fighting with Saudi Arabian troops along their common frontier. Saudi Arabia supports Prince Hassan's efforts to restore the monarchy.

Oct. 16—It is reported from Jordan that Prince Hassan has given up his claim in favor of the Imam. It is reported in Jordan that the supposedly assassinated Imam Ahmad has sent telegrams to all the Arab chiefs denouncing the rebellion. In the telegram received in Jordan yesterday, the Imam says he has joined with loyal tribes to put down the rebels.

Oct. 18—Prince Faisal of Saudi Arabia states that the Imam Ahmad is alive.

Oct. 31—A radio broadcast reports that Premier Abdullah al-Salal has also been named president of the new Yemeni republic.

YUGOSLAVIA

Oct. 4—Soviet Chief of State (Chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet) Leonid I. Brezhnev leaves Yugoslavia.
